BACKGROUND

John Minns studied Spanish and Latin American Studies at the University of New South Wales (UNSW) where his Honours thesis on Mexico was awarded the University Medal. He later completed a Doctorate at the same university. He is a former Fulbright Scholar, taken at Texas A&M University – Kingsville, USA. Before arriving at the ANU in 2003, he had been a lecturer at UNSW and at the University of Wollongong. In 2008, he won the ANU Students' Association Award for teaching. In 2009, he won the Australian Learning and Teaching Council (ALTC) Citation for Teaching. In 2010 he was awarded the ALTC Excellence in Teaching Award. He has been an Assistant Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Convenor of International Relations at the ANU.

IMPACT ON LEARNING & TEACHING

Over the years, Associate Professor Minns has trialed and reflected on different learning and teaching approaches. He believes that the process of applying for the Award crystalised his thinking about what he is doing and why. After the Australian Teacher of the Year Award in 2010, he was invited to present at interstate universities and at a number of formal and informal ANU events. He had more contact with the V/C after having received the Award, including travelling with him to Singapore to represent ANU at promotional and alumni events. He also noticed that he was sought out to provide advice particularly by early career academics. He was invited to sit on some ANU Learning and Teaching Committees, particularly looking at internal Teaching Award applications and review ALTC award applications.

IMPACT ON CAREER

Associate Professor Minns is an active and recognised researcher in South American politics. He had well-established connections with the Government in the trade area and DFAT, and was invited to give the keynote at the 2011 Bogata Conference in South America. In his current role, he is encouraged to mentor others and take on some learning and teaching leadership responsibilities including judging internal awards. At the time of the Australian Teacher of the Year Award, his profile was raised within ANU through the various publicity channels and he noticed that he now had greater contact with the V/C as a result of the Award. The promotion to staff of a learning and teaching award winner was particularly noticed by the academic community as ANU is a very research-focused university.
