

AUSTRALIAN AWARDS
FOR UNIVERSITY TEACHING

NEWSLETTER #1

8 March 2021

Dear Colleagues

Congratulations to all the award recipients and their institutions for participating in the 2020 Australian Awards for University Teaching video celebrations. The celebrations continue over the next few months with ceremonies being organised by our states to recognise citation winners.

In case you missed the Universities Australia announcements of the recipients, the recording can be viewed on AAUT-UA website. To date, the recording has had 2390 views.

In this newsletter, we wrap up the 2020 Awards round and outline what's next for the 2021. This year's awards round will open in August, and the key dates are outlined below.

We are also revising the award categories based on the feedback we received from the assessors, ICOs and DVCAs. These will be released in the next newsletter. A focus for 2021 will be to increase the number of applicants for the Neville Bonnar Award and the Early Career Teaching Award, so we look forward to your support in achieving these goals.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank our dedicated Awards Chairs, Professor Shirley Alexander, Professor Kerri Lee Krause and Professor Denise Kirkpatrick, who chaired the awards committees over the past three years. Without their leadership, commitment and dedication recognising Australia's top university educators would not be possible.

I hope you enjoyed the 2020 celebrations, and that you have personally reached out to congratulate the successful academics and teams for their teaching contribution to higher education in Australia.

My team and I look forward to sharing future developments of the 2021 AAUT in the next newsletter.

Regards

-Angela
