AAUT Awards Team Director

PROFESSOR ANGELA CARBONE

Dear Colleagues

I am very pleased to announce that the AAUT-UA webpage is now updated for this year's nominees. Our focus will remain on providing professional development and tailored support for applicants in all programs, particularly those in the Neville Bonner and Early Career categories. Please share the web link and the brochures provided below, within your own institution.

This year, we will also be developing a professional capability program for applicants and assessors, and deliver this from May to July. More details to come.

We have now wrapped up 2021 AAUT Awards, with all applicants receiving the assessors' feedback. Feedback was sent via the respective Institutional Contact Officer \(ICO\). Results from the assessment report and the evaluation summary, included in the last newsletter indicate that 2021 was another successful year, recognising the excellent and innovative work being carried-out in universities across the country.

Finally, the Awards Team is taking a break during Easter, returning to work on Tuesday 26 April.

Wishing you all a wonderful Easter!

Regards,
Angela
