

AAUT CAREER ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

AUSTRALIAN AWARDS
FOR UNIVERSITY TEACHING

ABOUT CAREER ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Since 2020, Universities Australia has reinstated the Career Achievement Award. This award, introduced in 2007, is occasionally awarded to one or more individuals who have:

- Made an outstanding contribution to learning and teaching.
- Been recognised for the impact they have had on the higher education sector.
- Achievements of major influence and left an enduring legacy.
- Served in higher education capacity for at least 25 years.

REQUIREMENTS FOR SUBMISSION

- Nominee's details
- Curriculum Vitae (CV)
- List the nominee's recognition, achievements, contributions and impact to higher education (500 words)

One nomination per institution

Please contact AAUT awards team:
aaut@rmit.edu.au

PAST CAREER ACHIEVEMENT AWARD RECIPIENTS

2021

ADJUNCT PROFESSOR JOHN BIGGS AM

Professor John Biggs AM has had a profound impact on approaches to the design of curriculum, assessment and learning in higher education in Australia and overseas. His development of the SOLO taxonomy, and, in particular, his articulation of the model of constructive alignment, have shaped the practice of an entire generation of tertiary educators in Australia and beyond.

2017

PROFESSOR SALLY KIFT

Professor Sally Kift has made a significant contribution to Australian higher education through her work on transition pedagogy, first year student engagement, inclusive curriculum design, whole-of-institution approaches to student success, and legal education.

Vice-Chancellor to nominate one nominee from their institution via the online 2022 AAUT Career Achievement Award Nomination Form (available on Friday 28 October 2022).

Sept - Oct
Preparation

31 Oct - 18 Nov
Online Nomination

Dec 2022
Assessment Period

Feb 2023
Awards
Announcement

Click here to see key dates

For more information on the AAUT awards type visit the link WWW.UNIVERSITIESAUSTRALIA.EDU.AU