Privacy Notice

Universities Australia takes its obligations to protect privacy very seriously. Universities Australia is an 'APP entity' and an 'organisation' within the meaning of the Privacy Act 1988 (Commonwealth). The Privacy Act regulates how organisations collect, use, hold and disclose personal information. Our policy is to comply in all respects with our privacy obligations. Universities Australia is bound by the Act including the Australian Privacy Principles. The Act is available for viewing at <https://www.legislation.gov.au/Details/C2020C00025>. The purpose of this privacy Notice is to tell you about the personal information handling practices of Universities Australia. This privacy Notice may be reviewed and updated from time to time. Changes to the privacy Notice will be updated on the UA website.

Collection, use and disclosure of personal information

As part of the nomination process Universities Australia collects the personal information identified on this form. Where the nomination is on behalf of another person, the information above is collected about that person. If this information is not provided, the application will not be assessed. Please notify the Awards Team by email aaup@rmit.edu.au for any contact changes on this form.

Personal information is collected to assess eligibility for a Career Achievement Award and to undertake statistical analysis in relation to the AAUT program. Universities Australia may also use this information to:

- ◆ Maintain an ongoing relationship with nominee
- ◆ Invite nominee to relevant events
- ◆ Review or evaluate the AAUT program.

Privacy Consent

By nominating for a Career Achievement Award or providing information in support of a nominee's application, you acknowledge and consent to Universities Australia disclosing nominee's personal information to the following parties:

- ◆ Awards Team
- ◆ Nominee's Institution
- ◆ Career Achievement Award Committee

Universities Australia may also publish successful nominee's information (excluding contact details) in media releases, presentations, conference programs, booklets about the AAUT recipients, and on Universities Australia's website. Universities Australia will not use or disclose personal information for any other purpose unless permitted by the Privacy Act 1988.

Publicity Notice

If the nominee is awarded a Career Achievement Award, the nominee consents, authorises and agrees (as appropriate) to the following:

- ◆ The use and disclosure by Universities Australia of any photographs, footage, words, images, quotes or other comments which identify the nominee and any other personal information about the nominee, collected in connection with the nomination (the Material).

- The Material being made publicly available including publishing it as part of a book, newspaper or article, television program, radio program, and including on the world wide web (which by its nature may involve disclosure to overseas recipients in any country) and any other media at any time. Once the Material is published it will be in the public domain and Universities Australia is limited in their ability to prevent subsequent use and dissemination of that Material even if information has ceased to be true or is otherwise misleading at the time of its use. To the extent (if any) the nominee owns intellectual property rights in the Material or any part of the Material, the nominee licenses Universities Australia to copy and disseminate them in accordance with this consent.
- Universities Australia are not obliged to, and have not represented they will, publish the Material; do not have to identify the nominee as the author of any of the Material which the nominee does publish or otherwise communicates; and may edit the Material prior to publication as it, he or she sees fit without first checking with the nominee.
- The nominee is not entitled to any remuneration or any other payment in respect of the use by Universities Australia of the Material. Universities Australia is also not responsible for any royalties or licence fees payable to the photographer/video maker for the use of the photographs/videos.
- If consent is not provided, the Material will not be used or disclosed by Universities Australia. The nominee retains the right to withdraw consent granted in writing at any time prior to publication of the Material.
