

AAUT CAREER ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

ABOUT CAREER ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Since 2020, Universities Australia has reinstated the Career Achievement Award. This award, introduced in 2007, is occasionally awarded to one or more individuals who have:

- Made an outstanding contribution to learning and teaching.
- Been recognised for the impact they have had on the higher education sector.
- Achievements of major influence and left an enduring legacy.
- Served in higher education capacity for at least 25 years.

REQUIREMENTS FOR SUBMISSION

- Nominee's details
- Curriculum Vitae (CV)
- List the nominee's recognition, achievements, contributions and impact to higher education (500 words)

One nomination per institution

2-3 minute video of publishable quality required for winning recipient.

Please contact AAUT awards team:
aaut@rmit.edu.au

PAST CAREER ACHIEVEMENT AWARD RECIPIENTS

2023

Emeritus Professor Denise Chalmers is an outstanding leader in learning and teaching renowned for her scholarship, collegiality, contributions to professional associations and passionate commitment to mentoring the next generation of learning and teaching leaders nationally and internationally for nearly 30 years.

2022

Alfred Deakin Professor David Boud is an internationally renowned educational researcher whose contribution over the last 40 years has shaped the practice of higher education globally. Through pioneering research and development, he has led and guided practical application of his work in assessment reform across the Australian higher education sector.

Chancellor to nominate one nominee from their institution via the online 2024 AAUT Career Achievement Award Nomination Form (available on 28 October 2024)