FEBRUARY 2025

Special Edition

Dear Colleagues,

Welcome to this special edition of the AAUT newsletter, where we proudly announce the recipients of the 2024 Australian Awards for University Teaching.

First and foremost, we would like to acknowledge the significant time and effort invested by all nominees in preparing their applications, with invaluable support from their Institutional Contact Officers (ICOs) and institutions. We also extend our sincere thanks to the 114 assessors and awards committees who generously dedicated their time to carefully reviewing applications and making challenging decisions. This celebration would not be possible without your unwavering commitment, dedication, and passion.

The recipients of the 2024 Australian Awards for University Teaching were officially announced via video on Monday evening, 24 February, by Universities Australia Chair Professor David Lloyd, AAUT Director Professor Angela Carbone, and the Award Committee Chairs, including Professor Pip Pattison (Teaching Awards), Professor David Sadler (Program Awards), Professor Liz Johnson (Citations), and Professor Sally Kift (Career Achievement Award). You can view the official 2024 AAUT video announcement here (also available on the AAUT-UA webpage).

Congratulations to all the recipients! Check out the full list of awardees in the 2024 AAUT Awards Booklet. All nominees will receive an official email containing detailed feedback from the assessment panels, which will be sent to ICOs for distribution by late March.

Once again, congratulations to all the award recipients. Finally, we are excited to announce that Universities Australia (UA) has confirmed the AAUT program for 2025. Additional information on key submission dates and briefing sessions will be shared in upcoming AAUT newsletters.

Regards,

AAUT RESOURCES

WELCOME TO 2022 AAUT!

I am very pleased to announce that the AAUT will continue to run this year, and will be funded through a collaborative universities approach.

This year, the focus will be on:

- Development of a professional capability program, including tailored support for the Neville Bonner and Early Career categories
- Detailed briefing sessions for CEOs, applicants and assessors
- Raising the profile of less underrepresented categories in the Program Awards
- Category 2: Collaborative educational partnerships and
- Category 4: WU programs that enhance student employability
- Redesigning of assessment matrix and assessment criteria

As we move forward into a more normalised year of teaching and in most universities welcome back students onto our campuses, I encourage you to start supporting potential AAUT applicants in your institutions. My team and I look forward to working with you again this year.

Regards,
Professor Angela Carbone
