AAUT PRIVACY COLLECTION NOTICE

Universities Australia has engaged RMIT University (ABN 49 781 030 034) (RMIT) to facilitate the 2025 Australian Awards for University Teaching (AAUT). RMIT collects the personal information on this form, as well as a photo of nominees, for the purposes of processing nominations and assessing eligibility for a Career Achievement Award. Information collected will be provided to the RMIT AAUT Awards Team, relevant judging panels/assessors (i.e. Award Committee Members), [the nominee's/your] institution, and Universities Australia for these purposes. Personal information collected may also be used for statistical analysis in relation to the AAUT program, to maintain ongoing relationships with nominees, and to invite nominees to relevant events.

Universities Australia and/or RMIT may also publish successful nominees' information (excluding contact details) in media releases, presentations, conference programs, booklets about the AAUT recipients, and on Universities Australia's website. Universities Australia will not use or disclose personal information for any other purpose unless permitted by the Privacy Act 1988.

Where the nomination is on behalf of another person, the information above is collected about that person. If you do not provide all of the information requested in the form, it may mean your nomination is not eligible to be assessed for an award. Please notify the AAUT Awards Team by email aaud@rmit.edu.au if you would like to request access to or to make any changes to the information submitted on this form.

Privacy Consent

By completing this form, you consent to your information being collected, used and disclosed as set out in the Privacy Notice above. For further information about how Universities Australia and/or RMIT handle your personal information, please refer to the links below:

- Universities Australia Privacy Policy – <https://universitiesaustralia.edu.au/legal/>
- RMIT University Privacy Statement – <https://www.rmit.edu.au/utilities/privacy>

PUBLICITY NOTICE

If the nominee is awarded a Career Achievement Award, the nominee consents, authorises and agrees (as appropriate) to the following:

- The use and disclosure by Universities Australia and/or RMIT of any photographs, footage, words, images, quotes or other comments which identify the nominee and any other personal information about the nominee, collected in connection with the nomination (the Material).
- The Material being made publicly available including publishing it as part of a book, newspaper or article, television program, radio program, and including on the world wide web (which by its nature may involve disclosure to overseas recipients in any country) and any other media at any time. Once the Material is published it will be in the public domain and Universities Australia and/or RMIT are limited in their ability to prevent subsequent use and dissemination of that Material even if information has ceased to be true or is otherwise misleading at the time of its use. To the extent (if any) the nominee owns intellectual property rights in the Material or any part of the Material, the nominee licenses Universities Australia and/or RMIT to copy and disseminate them in accordance with this consent.
- Universities Australia and/or RMIT are not obliged to, and have not represented they will, publish the Material; do not have to identify the nominee as the author of any of the Material which they do publish or otherwise communicate; and may edit the Material prior to publication as it, he or she sees fit without first checking with the nominee.
- The nominee is not entitled to any remuneration or any other payment in respect of the use by Universities Australia and/or RMIT of the Material. Universities Australia and/or RMIT are also not responsible for any royalties or license fees payable to the photographer/video-maker for the use of the photographs/videos.
- If consent is not provided, the Material will not be used or disclosed by Universities Australia and/or RMIT. The nominee retains the right to withdraw consent granted in writing at any time prior to publication of the Material.
